

HR Dashboard

The dashboard designed for HR department to informed decision making by exploring the following factors.

1. Each employee Year of service with the company
2. Number of employees in different level of job, and employees who are active and going to retire, across all the departments and the job roles
3. Employee performance rating, job satisfaction, Number of employees by business travel
4. Employee information.
5. Number of Employees who are near, far and very far from the Company.
(Company would like to arrange the transportation facility)

